Chapter One: Introduction

The helpless baby crying his lungs out due to hunger. The decent young man doing 15 years in prison for selling drugs. The misguided and desperate man that put a gun to that bank teller face. That single parent struggling to raise his/her child/children. The financially incompetent. The lazy procrastinator and stagnators. I wrote this manifesto for you all and for all people that have a money problem. In order to provide you with a few formulas and tactics that will facilitate solving your money problems.

Well how do you think the baby cried his lungs out? Why do you think that decent young man is doing 15 years in prison due to selling drugs? Both faced this condition directly and/or indirectly due to a money problem many millions of people in the U.S face some sort of money problems. A problem that causes so much death, hunger, crime, confrontations, betrayal, greed etc.

The money problems consist of us not being inmate with money. Not knowing money and worshipping money like its some almighty God or something. Looking at money as if it is impossible to get a hold of going. About acquiring money in a temporal effective way instead of a permanent effective way. Listening and emulating these "Wise People" in the illegal hustle world. Short term thinking. Lack of motivation. Lack of knowledge and financial intelligence. Lack of discipline. Lack of vision. These are the main elements of the money problems that affect so many from all walks of life. The elements that causes death, hunger, crime, confrontations, betrayal, and greed.

Just think about this: there are many men and women who will actually fake their feelings for their "soul mate (target)" in order to milk them out of money. There are many men and women who risk doing years in prison for a couple hundred dollars. "Years in Prison for a Couple Hundred Dollars." There are men and women eyes that light up with greed and then do treachery to their best friend for money. Is there not a problem seen here? No problem seen in a man snatching a 90 year old woman's purse for money?

Depending on your systems from your money problem, you will be stamped with a shameful title. A criminal, deadbeat, a low life, a no good bum, etc. this is due to how we were taught and think about money. Which have a heavy damage on our thinking in a major way? This thinking is a perversion to our minds. Perversions that have us doing some pretty crazy, sick, or ruthless acts. So when I say we have a problem, that's an understatement. We're really in a crisis. A crisis due to our thinking!

Kissing money and rubbing money all over your selves. Getting money or die trying. Killing for money. Prison for money. All this, like money is really hard to get. When I see this behavior I think of my younger days when this hard to get. Young man I knew absolutely praised this young lady. He would do "Anything" to try to get her, to the point he was so desperate in his approach. He never closed the deal. Yes this young lady was extremely beautiful and she attracted many young men to her.

Like this young man, all these young men tried and did everything to try to get with her. None closed the deal.

Yet I would secretly get a kick out of this. This is due to the young lady engaging in some pretty sexually-taboo-type stuff with me. So at that time I would be laughing wild thinking "Are you serious, do you know how easy this girl is and the things she do to me," when I seen these young men acting this way towards her. I hate using this analogy but it is the perfect analogy.

Here is this beautiful young lady that attracted every young man to her. They all put her on a pedestal then worshipped her. Doing every and anything to try to get her. Her beauty was smoke screen for who she actually was. She actually easy and every young man (not too many) that seen this got her with no problem. Now when the word got out that this young lady was easy, everybody approach to her was different. No more worshipping. No more desperation. No more guys backstabbing each other to try to win her favor. None of that, now just disrespect to this young lady.

This is how I feel now when I see so many people acting the same way towards money. Yet, the feeling is something that extremely saddens me. We out there are doing all these crazy, trifling, desperate, foolish, treacherous, and shameful things for money. Risking our lives for money. Putting money on a pedestal then worshipping this money.

Are you serious? Over money? Please excuse my language but money is a low class whore. Easy to get! Do not let its beauty and what it can do for you, fool you! It is a low class whore that got you all deceived. Got you out there all wide eyed and scheming and bugging out.

Like the word got out that this young lady was easy, it's time the word get out about how easy this money is to get. This way we can stop worshipping it. Stop this desperate approach of trying to get it. Start disrespecting money. We're not going to kiss you no more money, because now we know where you been.

In this manifesto the motive indeed is to lay a blueprint of how to become a full time L-Hustler (Legit Hustler) or a part time L-Hustler. In order for you to solve your money problem. Before the blueprint lay, you must be mentally prepared to carry out those plans. This is due to your past and present thinking that pave the way for your money problems. Your thinking has been led astray and I hope these words can get you right.

These words are for the men and women in prison and potential prisoners. These words are for the parents/guardians who young adult children are getting sucked into the streets. For the struggling single parents. For the hard working people who work so hard yet are still financially deprived. For the college kid trying to pay their way through school. Words for all types that have some sort of money problem.

This manifesto is not a get rich quick approach. This manifesto is for getting you in an L-Hustler state of mind. This manifesto is for the purpose for motivation you. For-getting you prepared to enter the legal financial world. For giving you a knowledge to succeed financially. Yet it is all on you to materialize the knowledge you will gain. Hopefully you utilize this information to your benefit.

My intentions in this manifesto are to give it to you in its rawest form. No mixing, no diluting. Straight up, no pig crap. We all have been given all types of bull shit and pig crap already. This is how we all got in this mess in the first place. No it's time for you to get some truth up in you. In the following pages this is what I will give you. The raw truth.

In these times it's time to be serious about what we do. Play time and all this foolishness is over. The time is now to strap our boots up then goes get our grind. The time for laziness and half-stepping is over.

The time is now to get motivated and become industrious. The time is now for us to really survive instead of being prey and temporary survivors. This manifesto is not for entertainment. It's for you to study, dissect, and then utilize to your benefit.

The Time Is Now!

Chapter Two: Legit Money for Survival and Staying Out of Prison

~ "Ninety percent of all people in prison today are there because of a money-related crime. Interesting, isn't it? Money is such a powerful force people will risk going to jail for it. Seventy-five percent of all murders are committed for money. People's insatiable desire to have money "actually drives them to kill another human being"!

Natural cures: "They don't want you to know about."

Quoted: By Kevin Trudeau

Where do I begin? The conditions of prison, no matter if it's Maximum or Minimum security, are horrendous, shameful, oppressive, sickening, and many, many more types of Ugly and degradative titles. Prison is a freak show. The cells consist of a bedroom/bathroom/kitchen eating area, all in one. Yet this cell is the size of a small closet

In prison there's no privacy. If the C.O(s) aren't observing your movement, a noisy neighbor prisoner is "My" friend this is not a good feeling at all. So. Well, the food that is prepared by the prison is awful. The over-priced canteen food isn't that much better, not to mention health wise. Chaos and confusion is King. The fact of confinement that disables you from moving. From not being able to open your heavily metaled door to your cell any-time, to what you're allowed and not allowed to do. Not being able to really hold and talk to your families, friends, and loved ones.

This is not a joke, prison is cold. It's a place that has the capability of psychological breaking a man/woman down. Sane one year and delirious the next. This has been seen many, many times. What a very sad sight it is indeed.

Yes, this awful condition placed upon you due to your improper pursuit for money. Yes, I do realize that not all of incarcerated individuals are in the system for money-related crimes. I do realize that not all convicted people are really guilty of their said crime. Yet for the purpose

Of this revelation, I'm directing these words to the incarcerated for money-related crimes and the potentially incarcerated for a money related crime.

Pushing drugs, selling illegal guns, robbing, pimping, stealing, conning, murdering for money. In turn to use this money to finance your drug addiction. To finance your material appetite. To feed your family, to pay for your money hungry boyfriend/girlfriend. For your own selfish reasons. One of these avenues you are travelling down that requires you to risk your liberty and freedom for?

Now although I'm against selling illegal drugs, guns, pimping, stealing, conning, murdering for money, I do not wish to touch on the moral wrongs of these acts, today. I want to touch on the Improper, Ineffective, and Incorrect teachings that lead a person to commit these acts for money. Then touch on a more proper, effective, and correct teaching that will help you avoid a "cold cell."

Now you have and must admit that you and so many others are in a terrible situation. If you're in a prison cell observe your surroundings with a conscious eye. Observe the characters around you. You and the characters around you are in some form, losers of the same game. You have been outmaneuvered by the powers that be. Whether by a mistake, pure; stupidity, caught "red-handed, or ratted on," you lost in this game.

Now the game is to financially succeed with the most absolute less risk possible. It's a gentlemen's game that requires skill and patience. It requires financial intelligence in order to reach the apex. It requires knowing the Laws of the Land. It requires a sharp mind and self control. These are the traits of mastering this game. The game to financially succeed.

Did I say that this game is composed of two different regions? A legal region and an illegal region. Yet they are pretty much one in the same. The only difference is the rules of each region. In the illegal region you face a graver risk while "conducting business." Trigger-Happy robbers, undercover Law Enforcement, Informants, Crime Partners and Friends who cannot hold their prison time so they rat on you for a reduced sentence. Basically a region filled with Vikings, Foxes, Pirated, Sharks, and Vermin.

The legal region is pretty much factored on a different risk. That risk being losing chunks of money on a venture gone badly. Sometimes bad advice from brokers. Late invoice payments from wholesalers and distributors. Bankruptcy and Lawsuits. Empty promises and Popularity Contest. There are Vikings, Foxes, Pirates, Sharks, and Vermin on this region also, but more clever and sophisticated.

So to begin playing this game you have to decide, according to your knowledge which region you will choose to financially succeed from. The region with a nervous kid with a gun that will shoot your for $1,500.00, and your jewelry. Or the region where your client was 40 days late for paying you $5,000.00 for the product you sent them.

You see most of us were not taught the gentlemen's game that requires skill and patience. We were taught dog-eat-dog and get it right now. Due to our hunger and ignorance, we didn't care about doing 20 years in prison for $10,000.00. Not knowing the Laws of the Land facilitated an unjust conviction upon us. Drugs and Liquor dulled our minds and we lost all our self-control. We were living the lows of life so we knew nothing of reaching the apex of nothing.

So according to what we were taught and the knowledge we were ingrained with, we decided to financially succeed in a completed chaotic region. Don't we see something wrong here?

Legit Money For Survival and Staying Out of Prison

I'm not talking about a moral wrong here today! I'm talking about the wrong way of succeeding financially. It's like we decided to get chewed up by a junk yard dog for attempting to take a few pennies. Yet there's endless gold to be had without receiving a bark from any dog. Is the wrong notice yet?

Today I do not wish to enumerate your problems, but to strive to facilitate helping you solve your problems. You know your problems; you went to get chewed up by a junk yard dog for a few pennies. Yet have you ever sat back and deeply reflected on what made you decide to get chewed up??

Well somehow it all started from a lack of money to acquire whatever it was you wanted, needed, or desired for yourself and/ or another person. You perhaps grew up watching your parent(s) financially struggling so you took action. You perhaps wanted to pay your way through college so you took action. You probably just loved the whole street element, so to get in you took action.

So you acquired money according to the knowledge you acquired on how to go about acquiring that money. Perhaps an older or younger relative taught you directly and/ or indirectly about the most common crime for profit aspects. Perhaps O.G, a friend, a movie, or from somewhere along those lines. You picked this teaching up from somewhere. It just didn't pop into your head out of nowhere.

So perhaps you learned to be slick and smooth in your ways of crime for profit. Indeed it is possible to do so. To make huge profit. Yet you must be on point and high alert for the elements working against you. Turncoats, Informants, Various Law Enforcement agencies, unfavorable coincidences, high stress, robbers, and cut throats. These elements will crack your head wide open if any of them get to you. This is the risk taken every time you make a move in this region of the game.

Yes, we must survive. To survive is to eat, be clothed, be sheltered, and be secure. To survive is not to be killed, to not be starved, and to not be held in bondage or confinement. So "Survival or your learned ways of survival" got you chewed up. Your learned ways of survival did indeed make you survive, but only for a limited time. Like a hyena, yes he eats, but when the lion comes and take this hyena food, that hyena can't eat any longer." This is you my friend." The hyena just trying to survive, yet to get your means of survival taken by a mightier force, the Lion. The loin is the elements working against you.

So in fact due to your inferior means of survival you're vulnerable to be attacked by a superior force that will cause you not to survive. You were taught a weak survival method. You were taught to succeed financially on the, the incorrect region of this game. Thus refinement is absolutely requisite in order for you to strengthen your means of survival. Without this refinement you will remain a victim my friend.

The game is to financially succeed with the most absolute less risk possible. It's a gentlemen's game that requires skill and patience. It requires financial intelligence in order to reach the apex. It requires knowing the Laws of the Land. It requires a sharp mind and self control. These are the traits of mastering this game. I wrote this again to make clear the traits of mastering this game is for the legal region. The superior game of survival.

At this stage the Lion is incapable of taking your food. The lion will not have the might to. Your food will not be a temporal meal. It will be a meal you can eat until your stomach pop. Thus, making your method of survival superior.

Yet you must first kill and build-up. Kill the character within yourself that's weak and inferior. Then build-up a new character within you that's strong and superior. This process is not easy but must be done. There's no getting around it.

Now like any teaching that becomes ingrained in us, that teaching become a part of us. It's now basically instinct, that when called upon happens automatically. So eradicating a teaching that has become a way of life most definitely takes a process. The same with building-up a new character, it's a process also.

Legit Money For Survival and Staying Out of Prison

Take into consideration that by you changing your survival method it's highly likely that you want nothing to do with the street element at all. This is a glorious thing. Welcome to a better culture and may you never look back ever.

So due to these weak and filthy teachings being implanted in your mind you have to thoroughly wash your brain, in order to clean off all that greasy filth. Starting with disinfectant followed by hot soapy water. Once your mind is thoroughly washed these teachings will be eradicated. This is revolutionizing your mind.

If you fail to completely get rid of those teachings it's a chance you can relapse back to the same life style when faced with obstacles. This is why you see that the recidivism rate is so high. You see and hear people always talking about "Their changed person." Changed to what? You already changed by proclaiming (or acting-out) and living with the title of a Gangster, thug, Pimp, D-Boy, you changed because a Gangster, Thug, Pimp, or D-Boy is not at all your actual self man. So the objective is not changing, but getting back to your essence.

Are you ready to stand firm on getting this weak teaching completely out of you, then building up a strong character? To know that money is nothing to steal for, nothing to kill for, nothing to poison for, nothing to enslave for. That money is simply a tool. A tool to get shelter, transportation, food, clothing, security, insurance, enjoyment, and other needs then wants.

Well you better stand firm because now is time to built or be killed by your environment. Stay a Hyena and prepare to constantly be killed. Or build to become a new man/ woman that are incapable of being a victim of this Lion. Inferiority or superiority. Weak or Strong. Death or Life. Please take your time and please consider wisely. It's on you not me. I already accepted to Live.

You see this street element is a complex culture. Yet I feel in order for me to speak to anybody about considering leaving that established culture I must at least have a system for these people to seek refuge. Its like how can I tell a person making

$10,000.00 weekly off drug dealing to leave the streets alone yet I don't have a replacement or half a replacement of that $10,000.00

To provide that person. The cliché' saying "Get a Job" is not strong enough.

Now I can provide you with the tools to arm yourself with, in order for you to do for yourself. Yet I can't provide you with get up and go but I hope to motivate you so you can get up and go. Get up and go get gold and live mentally, physically, and financially right.

First thing you must put in your mind is that the legitimate business world is not what it's all perceived to be. Leave it to Hollywood you'll think it's all about Wall Street, expensive offices, tailored suits, and excitement. You'll think that you need to have an MBA (Master of Business Administration) from an Ivy League school. That you will have to work your way up the corporate ladder. Hollywood is a multi-billions entertainment conglomerate that makes their multi-billions off glamorization. A beautiful business it is, yet not to be taken serious based off its depictions.

You don't need a suit and tie to engage in business. You don't need an office to engage in business. You don't need thousands or millions to start a business. You don't need to hire employees (at first) to help run your business. There are lucrative businesses you can run from a computer and phone in your living room with a tank top and shorts on. Lucrative businesses with only $300.00 start-up cost.

As long as you speak the business language you're good. Becoming financially literate is essential. I strongly suggest buying a business-word dictionary and internalizing the words completely. Like any countries that do not speak your language, you will be able to navigate through that country easier by speaking the native language. Learn the Business Language and you will navigate through the financial world with ease.

Read as many of the financial books and kits we have in our catalogs as you can. Your days and nights should be filled with learning how to put together a lucrative business for yourself when you get out of prison or while you're in prison. Use this time to master business. Stay up all night and build yourself up. Sleep when the job is done and sleep when you die. For now your mission is superior survival. Play time is over. You can play basketball, cards, and watch T.V. when you go home man and woman.

These words are not a joke. It's built or be killed my friend. We hope that the vast financial information in our possession be absolutely beyond helpful to you. Get you away from the weak survival methods that confined you. We hope you study and study and prepare for your release. Going back to the street life is out of the questions! Coming back to any prison is out of the question! It's built or be killed my friend!

Free yourself with Dedication, Ambition, Intelligence, and Information. May peace be upon you all until Death and beyond?

Chapter Three: Getting Mentally, Physically And Financially In Shape

“...The art of peace begins with you. Work on yourself and your appointed task in the art of peace. Everyone has a spirit that can be refined, a body that can be trained in some manner, a suitable path to follow. You are here for no other purpose than to realize our inner divinity and manifest your innate enlightenment. Foster peace in your own life and then apply the art to all that you encounter...”

Those were the words of the late Morihei Ueshiba which he made manifest in “The art of Peace” book he wrote many decades ago. Why am I quoting Morihei Ueshiba when the title of the build is “Getting Mentally, Physically, and Financially in Shape?” In his philosophy and way of life it was built on the fight within to get to the Supreme Being level. To get to the state of supreme realization of self and aware of your connection with the oneness of the Universe. To be Masters of self and the universe. All by training the Mind and Body. Like he made manifest, “The art of peace is not easy. It is a fight to the finish, the slaying of evil desires and all falsehood within...” so the purpose of training is to tighten up the slack, toughen the mind and body.

Yes, but what does this have to do with me getting Mentally, Physically, Financially in Shape? Well you have to first know what Peace mean and why it begins with you. On a Supreme level, Peace is and means the absence of chaos and confusion. Peace according to the dictionary means: “Freedom from disturbing thoughts or emotions.” Which is basically the same as the absence of chaos and confusion? So the art of being absent of chaos and confusion must begin within you. A savage can't be at peace until he/she clean their self up. For in a savage state you have lost your way and identity. You are petty, a thief, a crook, a betrayers, a slimy-snake. You're full of falsehood and lie to yourself. You profess righteousness yet live to the contrary when nobody is looking. You're a deceiver who smiles and winks. You are full of chaos and confusion. You are not at peace. You have been deceived into thinking your something you're not so fat and out of shape from eating that mental and physical pork and other poison foods, that was all taught to you. So now your victim to society. What can you do about it? You're mentally, physically, and financially out of shape.

Being a victim in this society is a tragedy. The courts railroad you and sentence you to forever. Usually due to a slimy lawyer and/or other unjust elements your women get mistreated raped, turned out on drugs and prostitution and other violations. That's another half of being a victim. Then again I'm not here to numerate the problems that come with being a savage. I'm here to encourage you to get Mentally, Physically, and financially in shape so you won't be a victim and/or savage. So you will be Peace.

What does getting Mentally, Physically, and financially in shape mean? The mind is a vast universe that needs the right seeds for it to cultivate into a supreme place. The body is a vehicle that must be solid and agile and of purity. Finances control our society as well as us so we must master it. Training these three muscles will enable you to never be a victim or savage again. Training these three muscles you're out to exemplify greatness. Society will have no choice but to bow down to you.

Getting these three muscles in shape requires training every single day. You can't train for one without the other.

What are the steps one should take to get Mentally, Physically, and financially in shape? Before you can get physically and financially in shape, your mental muscle must be strong enough to build up the other muscles. For the mind should be the strongest muscle of them all. Without it, it will be impossible for the other two to gain strength and endurance.

I've already established that many of us been fed all the wrong mental foods. So, many of our minds (Universe) are filled with greasy filth and dry lands. In this state, our mind (Universe) is useless and is unable to produce fruit and vegetables. You can't build a supreme place on a filthy unfertile land. You have to get a very thorough cleaning of the mind. Starting with disinfectant, followed by heavy scrubbing with soap and hot water. This is the rewashing of the mind. After your mind is rewashed and clean, you have to begin cultivating those dry lands, into a supreme place. Manifesting a supreme existence within.

The rewashing of the mind is the most crucial step. Think about this, most of us adapted directly or indirectly, the wrong teachings of how to physically and financially get in shape. Physically, most of the wrong teachings have been in the food diet. The constant over eating which damages the digestive system. Pig and other scavenger animals that are scientifically proven to cause serious harm to one's health. Liquor, Hard Drugs, and Medication, all prison that distorts your psychological perception, damages your nerve system, and leads to a life of degradation. Then there's the exercise aspect. The Cardio (or Cardiovascular) must be worked the most. It controls the heart and blood vessels functional aspects. This gives you better breathing, a healthy heart rate, Endurance, fitness, and many other health benefits.

The foundation, core, and upper body are another must to exercise. The legs are the foundation of the body that must be worked. Building this foundation is like building any other foundation. The stronger it's built the longer it stands. The core is the stomach and lower back area. The core must be flexible and solid. For the core control the movement of the body. The upper body consist of the arms, upper back, shoulders, chest and next. They should be of flexibility, speed, power and agility. The body is a vehicle that must be solid, agile, and of purity.

Now most of us are in the worst shape, financially. Let me first say that money and finances is just a tool. A tool to get Food, shelter, Transportation, Various insurances, Security, Clothing, Education, and other things of self and the family. A tool, that's it. Nothing to steal for, nothing to kill for, nothing to betray for.

Legit Money For Survival and Staying Out of Prison

Moneys' not to worship, it's not to get rich or die trying it's nothing to sell poison for and there's nothing almighty about the dollar. If you're not in accord with this you have been mis-guided by the blind teachings of "How to Get Money."

You can't blame the blind for putting forth these teachings. For they was taught by the blind themselves. These teachings led many to emulate the Michael Coroleone's and John Gotti's.

These teachings led many to emulate the French Connection and Scarface. They led many to get into the heist and stick up game. The work but illegal hustle on the side thing. The pimp game. All these avenues were lent to many of us and we never gave it back to its lender.

One may say "This street life is all I know and I'm successful in it." It may be true that it's all he knows and that he knows and that he is successful. He's successful because he successfully poisoned a whole community. Having his own women sell their selves to pay him. So yes man you're successful. Successful in the Sam way the slave masters were successful during slavery times. Again I'm not here to numerate the problems that come with being a savage.

So all this blind teachings of "How to get money" will wash away with all the other greasy filth when the mind is re-washed and clean. When it's clean you will come to the realization that you can master finances to the point you can become a billionaire if that's what you desire. 100% legitimate. Keep in mind that going legit on the business tip isn't hard. And even if it was, you would have to master it. You must eat. The basic because your players are CPA (Certified Public Accountant), Legal advisor, your supplier, your Broker, your assistant, and other people that play their part for your success.

The first steps are becoming financial literate. Becoming fluent in the business language. Also reading great minds like Robert Kiyosaki, Daymond John, Warren Buffett and many others. The financial world is an independent world. It's all on you how deep you want to get in it regardless you have to master this field. This field doesn't care if you killed 30 guys and did 35 years in prison. As long as you have the financial intelligence you can rise above the sky.

As you should know that by getting Mentally, Physically, and financially in shape your possibilities are endless. A Master Builder has no limits. She/he then will be birthed into a state of Supreme Realization of self and aware of His/her connection with the oneness of the Universe.

Chapter Four: Motivation Fuel

1. Subliminal Fuel
2. Trophy Fuel
3. Betterment Fuel
4. Necessary Fuel
5. Emotional Fuel

It must be noted that these five types of fuel must be taken seriously and used vigorously to accomplish your goal. These five fuels alone don't bring you success but they supply you with the energy to get through the obstacles of success you seek. The question is, do you really want what you dream and/or plan of? Do you? Do you really want to get out of your terrible situation or your current situation you want changed? Do you?

I saw plenty of people who are content in milieus and conditions that are completely unbelievable for any human to accept. I noticed each of these people in their own way gave up. As I got deeper into the deep sea of consciousness, I saw that most lacked the proper mind frame of rising out their condition. Really they lacked motivation.

The whole thing is to get motivated today so tomorrow you can live out your dreams for however long you want it to last, unlike the dream that you think of only last until you wake up. If not you can always join the failure and/or complaining club. These clubs are filled with all types of races, genders, ages. You pay nothing to become a member and the leaders of the clubs will welcome you with open arms. You pay nothing to become a member and the leaders of the clubs will welcome you with open arms. You don't have to ever worry about positive encouragement because misery is good practice amongst your club. You can watch all the TV you want.

Legit Money For Survival and Staying Out of Prison

Be honest on what motivates you and use that to your advantage and get what you want. Nobody can truly do for you as you can do for yourself. I'm sure on many occasions you attempted to do something but failed to do that something and at a later date looked back on that something and regretted the fact that you didn't use one of the fuels today.

I'm not preaching to you. That's not my field. I'm giving you one of many secrets to success that have made men and women successful. A lot of successful people have used these fuels without knowing the name of the motivation techniques. The Berry Gordy's', The Thomas Burrell', The Bill Gates', The Fortune 500 Executives, The Liz Claiborne's', LeBron James, The Danica Patrick's', The super Moms and Dads, The Single parents that's taking care of their young ones, The Soldiers, Law Enforcement, Past great rulers, New World leaders, The Kevin Roses', Shawn "Jay-Z" Carter, and so, so many more.

Each and every one of these people or organizations has used these fuels without the knowledge of the names. Just think without motivation fuel where would any of the people above be? My guess, a member of the failure and/or complaining club. To obtain Wealth and Prosperity you must utilize motivation to your advantage. Motivation is the foundation of success as the cement is to the building a building. Without it there's no possible way to obtain any type of wealth, success, or prosperity. No possible way.

Below I will break down each Motivation Fuel and how to use them to your advantage. Let's take a look.

Subliminal Fuel

Subliminal Fuel is any motivation usually enticed by people, places, or things that hits your subconscious making you react usually in a very swift motion and/or with adrenaline. This fuel comes in many forms.

Example: Your friend says he bet $50 he can do more push-up's than you. Now under normal circumstances, 40 push-up's is your max number. Since $50 is on the line when you get down doing push-ups, your adrenaline will be pumping. The results will definitely be more than 40. Perhaps it will be 80 push-ups. Your friend might win the bet by doing 90 push-ups but due to Subliminal Fuel you doubled your maximum number of push-ups.

You see Subliminal Fuel in the work and business world all the time. Their disguised under the names of Bonus, Commission, Incentive, and the likes. This makes you increase your work ethic in order to increase your income and status. This is a beautiful system foundered off subliminal fuel.

Betterment Fuel

Betterment Fuel is usually a state of mind of wanting to approve a current situation one is in; usually financially, physically, and/or educationally.

Example: a person born into poverty grows of age and wants out of living in a poor state. Barely candy food, hand-me-down clothing, bad living conditions is this persons livihood and that person realizes usually first that money is their way out. So that person becomes an entrepreneurs (Many entrepreneurs come from poverty), and his/her motivation is living better housing conditions, taking care of family, better clothing, better eating and never going back to any form of poverty. Day and night they work hard using betterment fuel until they reach their new status.

This is a very potent fuel that moves mountains. The hunger in the person to rise up intensifies times ten, in regards to ambition, dedication, and determination. This feel facilitated making international leaders, multi-millionaires, and billionaires, all-star athletes, and so many, many more Successes for the people using it.

Necessary Fuel

Necessary Fuel is mostly a state of life and death if not done appropriately. It can also be a fuel the need to win a very important event of various sorts.

Example: Your doctor says that due to your excessive weight you're facing major health risks that can result to a very bad physical position or possible death. He gives you a regiment to follow in regards to exercising and eating healthy foods. Now seeing that your facing major health risks that may result to death, you use necessary fuel vigorously to make sure you lose the necessary weight and do everything and anything to make sure your healthy. Without you learning of your health risks you would have never have had the same motivation to make sure your necessary regiment is being done.

This fuel is the reason a country man wins a battle against the reinvading soldier. The reason the deadbeat son comes up with thousands of dollars to save his mother from losing her house to the bank. This fuel is similar to subliminal fuel yet more potent. This is due to it being of urgency and a matter of a grave ultimatum. The option of life and death.

The only usual way necessary fuel is utilized in regards to finances is if raising those finances are for something serious. Like losing a house, paying for a serious health condition, or things along these lines. Yet look at you needing to succeed financially as a necessary. A matter of survival which it is. It may not be as potent but you will see result.

Trophy Fuel

Trophy Fuel is motivated by certain material possessions that one wants; expensive cars. Big houses, jewelry, a hot man or woman, lot's of money, and other's along material possessions lines.

Example: Seeing that $200, 00 Ferrari parked and the status it symbolizes. The response it get by beautiful women/men gets into the mind of one, that in turn devise a plan to get the same type of status as the person who owns the Ferrari. So that he gets the same attention. That Ferrari and the reactions of people to that Ferrari and the owner are instilled in the person mind which in turn gives tremendous motivation to that person to start a very lucrative business to supply his lavish spending desires so eventually he can obtain the same status. B beautiful women, lots of jewelry, mansions, lavish parties, exotic vacations, $200, 00 cars, etc.

This fuel brings people from every corner of the world to America. To emulate the rich status seen on T.V or through their own eyes. This fuel is similar to a dream. It shows the fantasies and pleasures with the dreamer in them. This fuel motivates that young man to get on his grind. This fuel motivates pro-athletes to get championship belts and rings. This is a very effective fuel.

Get a picture of your wanted trophy and hang it close to your bed so you can see it. Have it as your constant reminder of what your L-Hustling for. That $175, 00 car, $3 million mansion, lavish parties, etc. Always keep your trophy in your vision. Do not let anybody stand in your way to success. Utilize this fuel to get to the status you deserve.

Emotional Fuel

The most pervasive and is mixed with Trophy, Subliminal, Betterment, and Necessary fuels. Emotional fuel is using any form of emotion as a way to boost your motivation to satisfy that emotion, overcome that emotion, gain that emotion, or never feel that emotion again.

Examples: Satisfy (Jealousy): A woman's in a management position at your firm. You're more competent and a lot harder working but she's better looking with a little more charisma.

Legit Money For Survival and Staying Out of Prison

You're jealous of her. You want that management position? Use your jealous emotions as fuel to get the position. Use every and any tactic (legitimately) to oust her. Don't stop using that fuel until the mission is over. After watch in joy as she now is working for you. Kill her with kindness and watch as you satisfied your emotion.

Overcome (Fear): You fear the thought of taking a big risk and losing financially and becoming a failure. This is a case of fearing what you don't know. What you're facing is a Lion cub with a grown Lions roar. You're persistent on launching your business so you find out as much information as possible and find out that it's highly likely you will turn a profit. You will laughter at the fact that you feared a cub with a loud roar. You overcame your fear which is said to be the greatest problem to overcome.

Gain That Emotion (Happiness): Bills were piling up, major budgets in the house were made, and your kids wanted certain material things of their liking but couldn't get it. All because of some sort of rough times that Money can't buy happiness but it can buy you the road to it. So as a parent never worry about bills and your children going without. Whatever way rather it's taking an extra job or starting an internet business as an executive representative or along those lines your plan is to gain happiness. In this case happiness is no worry of bills, watching your kids playing or using what they wanted so badly and being able to just do all the little extra things for yourself and kids that you once had to do without.

Never Feel That Emotion again (Pain): Fortunately you got out of a mentally and physically abusive relationship alive. The most important issue is to never ever but the abuser was provider. You have no income and limited skills. Use your experience as being abused to your advantage to recover mentally, share your story or just bits with other abused men and women. You can start a blog and/or write a book while working odd little jobs to keep a steady flow of income coming in. the objective is to not forget the pain but to never feel that pain again.

Which requires being strong, gaining confidence, gaining and building hi self-esteem. Finding your inner beauty, looking in the mirror and smiling at yourself. Shedding your last tear, being around old or new friends. Being comfortable with you and loving yourself. The pain is over and you will never feel that pain again. Get your story out there either to a couple of people or the world and everything you want will come in time

You see emotional fuel in the offices and boardrooms of some of the wealthiest. The competition just made a power move that if played right will put them in the leading position in the industry. Emotional fuel is heavy in the owners of the company that already have the leading position. Their leading position is being threatened. Motivated off this emotional fuel these owners, their clients, and employee's will do everything in their power to make sure they stay in lead position.

Use emotional fuel to raise to the top of the industry you is in. look at the competition in your industry as the people trying to stop your rise to the top. In essence they are. So use this fuel to master your profession and skills to strengthen your hand. Do everything in your power to stay on top.

These in a snapshot are the five motivation fuels that when arrives should completely be taken advantage of. Many can be mixed in order to have a lasting effectiveness. These five fuels mixed with knowledge and dedication will bring you plenty of financial success if utilized properly. Use them every chance you get and watch the results you get. May you see many success.

Chapter Five: The Way of an L-Hustler

Legit Hustler is what L-Hustler mean. L-Hustler is the hustler of hustlers. Like the King of Kings. The L-hustler is the baddest, most calm, most savvy, most ambitious hustler period. The L-Hustler is aware of the traps his predecessors fell into. Thus he became more conscious and wiser. Making him a superior hustler. The way means the principles the L-Hustler live by.

You see the hustlers of the old ways, were no doubt successful in a sense. They were no doubt ambitious. They were about their money and they made it. Through drugs, fraudulent schemes, and anything to make a buck. Night Clubs, Car dealerships, clothing stores, etc. as a front, as they still operated their illegal hustles. Some went completely legit but many mixed illegal with legal. Many just stuck to their illegal hustles. Many are still stuck in these ways.

These hustlers of the old ways took a lot of risk to obtain what they hustled for. In many circumstances this way of hustling was showed to them directly and/or indirectly. Perhaps this in their eyes was their only outlet to make money. Yet their approach was limited and at any time.

The L-Hustler is well aware of the ways of the old. Many of us fell victim to the old ways. So the L-Hustler is by no means new to the world and how it operates. This is how many hustlers became and will become L-Hustler. Just doing the history on past hustlers and seeing their mistakes is a no brainer on why we cultivated into L-Hustler.

Being an L-Hustler is a way of life. The way of dress, speech, confidence, walk, style, etc. is a part of that way of life. Honest, loyal, Honorable, Disciplined, Self-determined are just a few glorious traits of an L-Hustler. Money is not the motivator to an L-Hustler. In fact of L-Hustler do not work for money, he/she have money work for him/her. An L-Hustler cannot be corrupted by money. He knows how to make money trees, so money is not a thing.

The L-Hustler is the absolute best person to do business with. If you buy their products, it's always quality products. If you have a contract with an L-Hustler they will honor their end. The L-Hustler is not out to rip anybody off. They pride their self on doing great business.

You see the motto is to always think big in order to do big. The sky is not the limit because there are no limits. So making power moves on a daily basis is the only way. Striving to outdo the day before. Shining with confidence and taking bold action when needed. Looking at the most revered hustler/businessman and striving to do him.

Possessing the best of both worlds and fusing them together for a more effective hustler philosophy. Street smart and financial literacy (or intelligence) fused together makes to L-Hustler the hustler of all hustlers. The more of both worlds you know the higher status gained. Knowing and having an understanding of them both is what makes an L-Hustler an L-Hustler.

One cannot become an L-Hustler overnight or in just a few weeks. This is why not anybody can become an L-Hustler. There's stages one must go through in order to officially be an L-Hustler. Becoming financially literate and street smart is just one thing. It's the whole thinking and state of mind of the L-Hustler that makes him glorious. It's not the money or any material he possess that make him/her glorious. It's his deeds.

The way of the L-Hustler is not the easy road. The L-Hustler is of longevity thinking. He is like the olive tree in a sense. For he goes through a long cultivation process. Yet when cultivated he lasts forever. This is why the L-Hustler must have discipline, patience, and dedication. If not, the easy way may find its way in his heart.

The process is getting mentally, physically, and financially in shape. It's like becoming a part of the Special Forces. First you have to prove yourself in another branch of an armed force first, in order to qualify. To be the baddiest you have to train to be the baddies. Like the Special Forces, not everybody make it, due to it not being for everybody.

So indeed the L-Hustler is in an elite class of qualified men/women. At first glance or look you may not notice one (L-Hustler). They roam the hallways in route to their plush office. They get out of bed then head to their home office. They eat and hang out at their restaurant where they also run multiple businesses out of via Internet. They are on vacation across seas taking it light.

Popular belief of business man attire is wearing a suit and tie all the time. Having short trimmed hair. Although many of us wear suits and have short trimmed hair we laugh at the idea. Many of us have braids, dreads, mo-hawks, and other "Non-conventional" hair styles. You'll see an L-Hustler in a very nice sweater, scarf, fitting (not skinny) jeans, with a smooth pair of boots on, on his way to close a $3 million dollar deal.

In this sense one many consider an L-Hustler a rebel against society. No, we just make moves unapologetically and hold fast to our beliefs. The L-Hustler is free and expresses their self so. We understand the professionalism of many institutions. Their dress code that they enforce upon the people they employ. Many of us do the same and have no problem with it. We understand the power of proper appearance. Yet even with suits we wear our braids, dreads, or other "Non-conventional" hair styles if we choose to.

Yes we grind hard and party (from time to time) hard also. We stay away from drugs and many of us do not drink. We spoil ourselves with new toys only when we can more than afford to. Indeed the objective is to live very well. Why not? To never let not enough money be a problem.

The L-Hustler is very charitable. Not for publicity or to boast. The art of giving is part of the way. Although money is given as charity, the L-Hustler knows the giving of knowledge to the needy is more effective. Many of us hear barber shop type talk o why the rich don't give more. Well would you give a car the six year old child who does not have the know-how to drive?

Knowing that he'll crash or you'll end up driving him and yourself. Wouldn't it be best to teach that kid to drive so he don't crash or depend on you or someone else to drive him around? Yet in the mean time it is very proper to help feed and clothe the young man until he can use the knowledge given to him to do for his self. This is the best charity one can give.

It is said "Life is what you make it, so make it good." I agree and through the way of an L-Hustler make it great. Poverty and dependency will not have power over you. Excuses, Laziness, or Procrastination will not exist in you. Your fear will become fearless. Your outlook of the world will change due to your consciousness. No more confinement of any form, just freedom. This is the power that is possessed.

This is the way of the L-Hustler. It's often a lonely path. Sometimes long days/long nights. Yet a glorious road. A road you're the architect of. Make it what you like. Best of fortune to you!

Chapter Six: Image Check

That's right it's most definitely an Image check. You plan on becoming an L-Hustler, Entrepreneur, Businessperson you must have an image that reads "I'm a person you really want to do business with." So grab a pen and piece of paper and take notes. Your image is being checked.

Hygiene: Yes it is very essential to always be on top of your hygiene. You must smell like success and the scent of success in fresh and clean. Shower at least once a day. Brush your teeth thoroughly after each meal. If you do not use deodorant make sure you use a method to keep your odor fresh. Always shave and/or keep a fresh line up. For the men with Braids, always keep your hair clean and braids looking fresh. Some with you too women with braids or like fashion. Other styles of hair must look well taking care of also. Your body must be well groomed at all times.

The objective is to feel good and have those around you feeling good to be around you. Great hygiene provides this. It is known that people with bad hygiene are less likely to reach many successes, financial success included. Bad hygiene causes others to be in discomfort and less likely to be around you. A lack of hygiene shows that you do not care for yourself and lack good self-esteem. Thus repelling those around you instantly.

To conclude, if you feel good you look good. When feeling and looking good your confidence increase. Great hygiene is a factor in confidence. With confidence in play, success is right around the corner. Since success is what we seek, great hygiene must always be implemented.

Clothing: On first impression clothing tells a story on which we are. A perfect fit suit tells that you're a person on your way to an office to engage in business, politics, or some professional service. Dusty leather jackets and boots with grimy jeans says you have a Harley parked outside. So depending on the business you're engaging in, there's strategy in wearing a style of clothing that attracts the people in your set market to you. So the man with the dusty leather jacket and boots with grimy jeans may be a walking advertisement for the Harley Davidson motorcycles and gear he sells

Due to most of us not engaging in business that is a strategy to have that biker look, we must take a different approach. Not matter if you're wearing a suit or a sweater and jeans when engaging in business they must always be clean. No clothing that's not styled wrinkle should be wrinkled. Clean and pressed. It does not matter if you have only two suits. They must always be clean and pressed. The objective is to have that sharp look.

So to sum it up, the clothing you wear represents your professionalism in the set venture or business you're engaged in.

It is very best that you dress according to the business you engage in. Dressing in jeans, T-Shirts, and sneakers may repel your customer (market) from dealing with you if that set market requires a suit and time as its appealing apparel. While dressing in a suit may be too much and very unnecessary for a business that require jeans, boots, and a sweatshirt.

No matter if you're wearing a velour suit or a suit and tie, the attire must always be clean, pressed, and sharp in look. Like bad hygiene, dirty spotted-up clothing is a turn off. It takes away the great chances of success that clean clothing provides. Do not underestimate the success that comes with being and looking sharp with your attire. For if you do, do not be surprised of the result it yields.

Speech: The act of speaking. To talk or conversant with. This is the meaning of speech. To articulate your words in a way that you're set customer (market) can understand. To give them the clear understanding that you know what your talking about and that the product or service you're striving to provide for them is good for them.

Yes, there are many languages for many different markets. The financial language. The Law language. The Medical language.

The various arts languages. Each of these worlds of languages has its own slang. To know them gives you the map to navigate through each set world with ease. To not know them leaves you lost and confused.

Yet no matter what language you seek to speak you must fluent English (or countries native language) and the financial language. Knowing these languages will provide opportunities beyond your wildest dreams "If" utilized properly. Knowing is more than just half the battle. For to really have financial intelligence is to understand how business and finance function and how to use them to your benefit. Thus making the action of materializing that much easier.

The objective is to capture your audience (market) attention and keep their attention for the amount of time you want. Through your tone of voice and words will be part of that capture. You want to capture the attention of the Bankers, Suppliers, and Manufactures, Wholesalers, and like people who do not know who you are, but you need them to make your enterprise work. You need to know how to talk with the jerk who's taking his miserable life out on you. With the most effective speech it will bring you great results from all the obstacles set in front of you.

Effective speaking is most definitely an art in it self. I find that by studying dictionaries (English, Financial, etc.) and reading a lot makes effective speaking. Plus by having confidence makes it a lot easier to convey your words. Hygiene and clothing.

Facilitates effective speaking. Every person engaged in business must be a competent communicator.

Character: Character is what represents who you are. How you, talk, walk, dress, and express yourself. What deeds and actions you put forth. The principles and laws you live by. This is what makes your character. The character you should know and most definitely the character many around you see.

How's your character? Is it honest or dishonest? Loyal or disloyal? Honor or dishonor? Strong or weak? Guided or misguided? Patient or impatient? Significant or trifling? Industrious or Lazy? The question lies to the point of who are you!

In Legit business your character must be a character that people can trust and rely on. Honesty, Loyalty, Honor, Strength, Great Direction, Patience, Significance, and Industriousness brings trust and reliability. These traits are the traits that allow a person to raise high in business. To not have these traits will hinder your chances of reaching success.

Well who would want to do business with a person they can't trust and rely on? Even the untrustable and unreliable don't want to do business with those who can not be trusted and relied upon. Thus if you are a person that can't be trusted and relied upon then it's time to clean yourself up. You have to first build your character up within first and importantly. There's only so long you can fake Honesty, Loyalty, Honor, Strength, etc. until it's tested and you fail. No, you have to be sincere and it all starts within yourself (your thinking). So when you do build your thinking to trustworthy and reliability it will manifest to make-up your character. Now allowing you to rise to untold levels of successes.

What more should be said, character brings success or failure. Trust and reliability brings success. Untrustworthy and unreliable brings failure. Character is what represents who you are. How is your character representing you?

As you see that you're Hygiene, Clothing, Speech, and Character goes hand in hand with each other to complete your image. All four of these factors will be analyzed by everybody you directly or indirectly come in contact with. It's mandatory you be sharp and on top of each one. Not just because first impression and appearance are important. No, because having a great image should be a natural part of your living. What more should be said?

Chapter Seven: The Side Hustles

It has been seen and heard time after time. The high salaried man killing his self or going homeless after losing his job. The hard working Mom, working two jobs and still struggling. Dad working 16 hours shifts 5 days a week and only bringing home $600.00 weekly. These types of stories have become so common. Nevertheless they are unfortunate to always hear.

Who is the blame of these things that plague so many American's and people around the world. The people who say "Go to school so you can grow up and get a nice job?" The school system for lacking to teach financial intelligence? Your parents or other elder family members? Activist? The Government? "Greedy Rich People"? Are you to blame for not knowing? Who?

Well indeed we can all play the blame game with many things in our lives. "I was late to work because this old man in front of me was driving so slowly." "I can't eat because they didn't send my check." The blame game can go on and on. Yes there are obstacles that may be in our way but we have to find a way through or around the obstacle in order to do what we planned. So if you do not get through that obstacle blame yourself for not being on point to overcome the obstacle.

Now I'm a firm believer and advocator of basic financial education being implemented in the curriculum in our educational institutions. I'm a firm believer that everyone should be financially educated. This, if implemented right will get rid of many money problems. Yet at this present time that is not the case. This is why it's so essential that we become a versatile society. Knowing many dimensions in order to survive. Becoming Mentally, Physically, and financially in shape will bring this survival.

Yes there is knowledge that does not reach every single person in this society. This society is built off man to do for his self or starve. Swim or sink. Walk with knowledge or walk blind.

Legit Money For Survival and Staying Out of Prison

Many of us cannot even see this due to our minds solely being on how we are not going to starve or sink. This making we walk blind

So in a sense you can blame this society for not giving you the knowledge and opportunities to not have to struggle. To not depend on a paycheck. Yes you can but where would that leave you? It would leave you in your same condition. Complaining about this, this, and that.

Yet I feel your pain. The pain of walking blind and being powerless against your situation. Feeling like the world is against you. I have empathy for you but I'm not sympathetic to you. This is due to you having the mind power to get off your knees then go do for yourself. Do for yourself after receiving the know-how. Let's look at this know-how.

What is a side Hustle? A side hustle is an enterprise that is not time consuming, yet it brings in additional income. It is usually part-time, outside of the person's full time job/career.

Example: Tina worked in retail at this popular franchised clothing store. The pay was decent yet not enough to take care of her and her two kids. Tina was struggling but being a go-getter, Tina came up with a plan. Her plan was to open caterer service business.

Her mother was a great cook and also had so much free time on her hands. So when Tina discussed the idea, she quickly agreed to go in business with Tina. Tina used her position at the retail store to network and market her cater business. Before she knew it orders were flying in for Tina to cater birthday parties, baby showers, get-togethers, etc.

The cater business generated Tina a very good amount of money. She still kept her retail job mainly for marketing and networking purposes but also for another source of income. This avenue was able to take Tina from a struggling single Mom to financially comfortable position. By getting a side hustles in order to increase her income.

This is what must be done. Seeing an opportunity to set up an enterprise that does not take up much of your time. Perhaps 15-20 hours a week. This way you can still focus on your full time job. Who knows, your side hustle might become so lucrative you'll be able to quit your full-time job.

Even though it's a side hustle, it's very important to become financially literate. You will need to in order to understand the financial jargon and how to go about legitimizing your enterprise. Which business structure to choose for your enterprise? What permits and license will be needed? What equipment will be needed (computer, fax machine, phone, etc.) who will be a part of the business to help it prosper? What will be the marketing strategy? Who will provide the capital? Becoming financially literate you will easily be able to answer these questions and many others that will enable you to prosper in your enterprise.

Having financial literacy gives you a new and keen outlook on things. Opportunities you couldn't see before will start jumping out at you. There are so many opportunities out there that you pass every single day. Especially in this time of the Information age. Home based businesses, Executive representatives positions, various Broker positions, Real estate opportunist, selling wholesale products. The list goes on and on.

I suggest staying away from a lot of that get rich quick stuff. This is why I stress becoming financially literate so much. You'll be able to see the pig crap from the real deal. Yet always investigate the offers that come to you. Never assume that an offer is Legit or Not-Legit. You will be surprised where assuming will get you. It will get you not far. You may pass on an opportunity that seems right. Investigate, Investigate, Investigate, before making any moves

Just get on your computer and search for opportunities. You will find companies willing to pay you great commission for your services. You'll find overseas firms looking to do business with you. Also get out to high populated areas, then just watch and listen to people. By doing this you may see an opportunity to do or create something that people or area is missing. Like there's hundreds of people walking around during lunch time but there's no hot dog stand. Seeing this you will perhaps capitalize off of it.

This of course takes motivation and dedication. Get it in your mind that the only way to prosper is with motivation and dedication. Without it you will continue to struggle and complain. Working long hard hours with nothing to show for it. Who would you blame then? Remember this society is built for those that can do for their self. So the question is you going to sink or swim.

Now you have the knowledge to increase your income. Utilize the best part of these words to your benefit. The side Hustle is very effective. The objective is to take on a side hustle that will bring you in at least $30,000.00 a year. Many small enterprises have turned into giant conglomerates. The possibilities are endless when you enter this world. I hope your enter it to see for yourself.

Knowledge, ambition, Motivation, and determination will free you! So get as much as each as you can!

Chapter Eight: Message to the Prisoner: What's Your Worth, Asset or Liability

No matter where on this earth we may be each of us have a worth. Usually that worth comes with a title or some sort of depiction. A king, a peasant, a soldier, a coward, a businessman, allow-life, an honorable person, a thug, to name a few. Usually this titled worth is put forth by a collective people who analyzed your movement. So due to the collective judgments you are now stamped with your titled worth.

So it is your ways and actions that determine your worth. In turn your worth determines how you're treated by the people around you and the people you will have dealings with. Rather that treatment is "First-Class" or "Talked-down-upon," pretty much is on your worth. The way you, think, speak, walk, and carry yourself (ways and actions) is a depiction on who you are, which in turn manifest your worth.

Now, yes many people of different worth's do get slandered and/or exposed. Usually resulting in one, going through one of the courts. Criminal court, civil court, or the court of public opinion. When this happens it sheds light on the accused and the accuser, actual worth by how the whole affair is handled. Rather positive or negative the once glorious or shameful worth will be added-to or taken-from. Perhaps the glorious will become shameful; the shameful will become the glorious. Or the glorious become more glorious and the shameful will become the get more shameful. It is in these predicaments that the true worth is valued.

You the prisoner in cellblock such-and-such have had your worth valued. Due to you being judged by the collective locally, nationally, or internationally you have been stamped with your titled worth. Yes small percentages have been judged by the collective as being in prison for social, political, or other noble causes. Yet majorities have been stamped as a murderer, rapist, drug-dealer, robber, pedophile, two-bit criminal, and gun-runner. What is your true worth and what is the value of your worth?

In finding the value of worth it comes down to if you're an asset or liability. An asset in this sense being somehow beneficial to yourself, family, community, and society. What are you producing that brings benefits? A liability in this sense being somehow taking away and/or being a debt to yourself, family, community, and society. What are your ways and actions that's causing you to take away and/or being a debt?

To be clear, this true worth is found after a trial and tribulation. After a test of one's worth is conducted, the results show the true worth. The right type of fake diamond will shine; giving the perception it's real until it's tested. A clever King playing incompetent will show his might, skills, and brains when tested by opposition. So yes your ways and actions show your worth, but your true worth is valued after trial and tribulation. Then and only then can one know if their true worth is an asset or liability.

You are doing 20 years for Heroin distribution. You are doing a life sentence for murder.

You are doing 30-40 years for masked armed robbery. What's your true worth? Asset or Liability? Okay great you didn't rat when the pressure came. You took your responsibilities as a man, great. Well according to the collective judgment you're the scum of the earth. And animal that deserves to be caged. To be given spoiled and nasty food. To the smell your cellmates' rotten butt. To face 28-24 hours locked in a small cave (cell). The collective agree you deserve these conditions.

Hopefully not, but I'm sure many reading the above words said to their selves "I don't give a fuck what anybody think." Well you should my friend. You don't want anybody calling you a rat. You probably would rip some bodies head off if they called you a rat. Yet, you do not care if the collective say you're worth is a scumbag, animal, jail bird, or low-life. Man you're a liability to yourself with this type of thinking.

You're a liability to yourself because you taking away the best part of yourself. That's being your mind. Since you took it away your mind is lot. So yes you're lost your mind. So now that your mind is gone of course your ways and actions is that of an animal. An animal is unable to function in a society of civilized beings. Ail due to that animal not having the mind of civilized person.

An animal do not follow rules they follow their instinct. Even the animals that have been trained to obey commands follow their instinct. This is what makes animals inferior beings to us. So when you act as an animal you are taking on a trait of inferiority. Meaning your weak and of low grade. Of course you're a liability at this level to yourself. You're also a liability to your family, community, and society.

A family, community, and society can't benefit from an inferior person that can't think. They can't benefit from a weak person that can't take care of their self. They need a thinking person that can produce for them. They need a strong person that does not complain. They need a "MIND" that they can rely on no matter the weather. They need an asset.

So for you the liability who have lost your mind? In order for you to become assets you must get your mind back. No matter what condition you are in if you get your mind back then utilize it by travelling through the perpetual field of knowledge you will easily rise out of those conditions. The collective will see your true worth and will have no choice but to respect it.

Until then, there you sit in a liability state. Get up and take action and increase your worth. Did you understand when I said "your ways and actions (worth) determine how those around you treat you? "How do those around you treat you? How do your Friends, Family, and Loved one's treat you? First-class or talked-down-upon? How did your lawyer treat, treat you? How did the courts treat you? First class or talked-down-upon? Rather honored or disrespected it's all on your worth.

Legit Money For Survival and Staying Out of Prison

So even when you increased your worth you will be tested. Let's say you have been released from prison yet lack resources to have to have the basic necessities of man. Food, clothing, and shelter. This is a trial and tribulations. A test. What move you make shows you're true worth.

Asset or liability. You appeared to have gotten your mind back. You read dozens upon dozens of books while in prison. You completed many programs. You kept your "Nose-clean." You vowed to do right once released.

Well man now your being tested. What you thought your only test was through one of the courts? No, no my friend. Hard times will be your test. Past issues with your victims and their friends will be your test. Temptations will be your test. Unfavorable coincidences will be your test. So you better prepare yourself for what may possibly come. Put on your gloves and prepare for this tough fight.

What is your worth? Worth -more or worth-less? Understanding one can become the other if not careful or careful, which are you? What is your true worth? Asset or liability. You better become asset in order to live right. If not you will continue living the lows of life. Eating the crumbs off the floor and out of some other hand. Acting just like a big baby that's waiting on someone to Feed, Cloth, and shelter you. You better become an asset because this liability business is played out. Get with the times, get off your butt, and take action.

The subject today and the subject always is "what's your worth: asset or liability." Please do not take this subject lightly by no means. Meditate on these words. Keep them in mind while going about your daily interactions. Keep in mind an asset can become a liability if not careful and a liability can become an asset if careful. May you choose the worth that brings you benefit.
